Tariff May Be Taken Off If Growers Fail To In-

Unless truck farmers in the southern parts of the United States grow enough vegetables to make up for the quantity exported districts objected to higher duties because the effect would be to raise prices. This argument was met with the promise that if protective duties were laid, the production in the United States would be increased enough to make up for the vegetables that were to be excluded. It was only by promising that prices of vegetables are calling on the growers in the Everglades who asked for a tariff to grow enough vegetables so prices will be held down to a point that the factory hands in the north can afford to pay.

Cochrane, liquidator, that all persons having claims of any kind or nature against the Bank of Canal Point must file the claims within twelve months or they will be barred from collection. In the legal advertisement giving the notice Mr. Cochrane's address is given as Canal Point.

"For the purposes of audit, we request that you furnish our auditor, Messrs. Ernst and Ernst, P. O. box 871, Cleveland, Fla., with a complete itemized statement of your account against the Southern Sugar Company as of the close of business June 30, 1930, the date of appointment of the Receiver."

BENEFIT OF REAL ESTATE
Owners of automobiles in Okeechobee county must pay $35,565, the tax on cars having been imposed for the relief of real estate. Car owners also pay taxes on gasoline "for the relief of real estate."

COMMUNITY GOSSIP

A Canal Point man has got the Amos and Andy of the Fresh Air Taxi-cab Corporation of America mixed up with the Amos who has charge of banks and he thinks the Tallahassee Amos should pay more attention to what Andy says.

This is Bob Baker's version of it: Patrick Henry said, "Give me liberty or if you are sold out of Liberty give me White Bang."

The proprietor of a restaurant in the upper Glades noticed that two of his customers, a man and a boy, had not been served with any beverage except water and he asked them if they would have coffee, tea or milk and both said earnestly that they did want coffee and milk.

"Didn't the waitress ask you if you would have anything to drink?" the proprietor asked. "Yes," the man said; "she asked us if we would have anything to drink but we thought she wanted to sell us some home brew or beer."

Ed Kettner, who drives the Glades Delivery, says he is president of the Fresh Air Taxi-cab Company of Florida.

"Where's the hot dog stand?" a motorist asked a native in a Glades town.

"There's a restaurant over there, isn't that another up this way," he was told.

"Where's the hot dog stand?" the motorist persisted.

"You can see something to eat at either of those places," the native assured him.

The motorist wasn't satisfied with the answer. "Where's the hot dog stand?" he still wanted to know. "They told me," he went on, "that I could get some likker at 'hot dog stand.'"

Skipper Didn't Name Canal Point P. M.

William A. Baker, new postmaster at Canal Point, has provided himself with assistance in handling the business of the office succeeded by Mrs. Jack Barrett as postmaster several years ago. A postal inspector was here Saturday, following the removal of Claude C. Coleman Wednesday of last week.

Glenn Skipper, the Republican national committee man nominated Mr. Coleman for postmaster, seems not to have been consulted in the appointment of the successor. The state Republican committee a few weeks ago undertook to take the distribution of patronage out of the hands of Mr. Skipper and named John Francis Harris as its representative at Washington. Skipper belonged to the faction that supported National Chairman Houston, whose resignation was forced by President Hoover's refusal to interfere for him.

Announcement made at West Palm Beach is that the appointment of Mr. William A. Baker as postmaster at Canal Point was made by H. H. Curtis of West Palm Beach, state committee man, acting with Newman T. Miller, Dr. C. V. Faulkner, Walter Greer and W. L. Brandon, precinct committeeman.

Pennsylvanians Don't Like Tariff Bill

Ernest Erickson, who owns a farm east of Pahokee, writes from Pomeroy, Pa., that he is staying with his daughter Esther at Pomeroy, in the mountains about 40 miles from Philadelphia and will remain there until fall.

He adds this comment: "I have been watching every daily paper here to find out what the new tariff is but I never found a word about it, but it seems that most of the people here are against the new tariff bill. The only paper I get any information about the tariff from is The Everglades News." Mr. Erickson says he was in Washington the day the president signed the tariff bill and there was more interest in the bill than elsewhere.

Up-to-Date Lament
"Twice the sleet before pay day, and all through my jeans I basted in vain for the piece of some bean. Not a quarter was stirring, nor even a bit; the kale was off duty, milled edges and quill. Forward turn forward. On time in thy flight—make it tomorrow, but for tonight—Pacific Power and Light Bulletin."

Lightest of Metals
Lithium is said to be the lightest of metals, having a specific gravity of 0.53. It is very reactive, especially with acids. Therefore, aluminum may be said to rank tenth.

9 SACKS ON SEC. 9
C. A. Stuckey of Canal Point says, "I'm going to take a chance. I'm going to plant nine sacks of beans on section 9 next week." Section 9 is back of the ridge between section 8 and 10.

EARLY SETTLER RETURNS TO GO IN CATTLE BUSINESS

John Gasikin, who was one of the first settlers on East Beach, is back and is making his headquarters at Canal Point. His wife is with him and they are guests of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Barrett.

Mr. Gasikin came to Canal Point with "the Thomas girls"—now Mrs. Barrett and Mrs. Forbes, before she was married and "is, was here she met Mr. Gasikin. Recently they have lived at Bartow. Mr. Gasikin has a deal with the Southern States Land & Timber Company to put cattle on the Gladesview district farm five miles west of 20-mile line.

The proprietor of a restaurant in the upper Glades noticed that two of his customers, a man and a boy, had not been served with any beverage except water and he asked them if they would have coffee, tea or milk and both said earnestly that they did want coffee and milk.

Small Humming Bird

A tiny humming bird not much larger than a common house fly is often seen in many East Indian countries.

CONFIRM COCHRANE FOR DEFUNCT BANK

Appointment of J. P. Cochrane of West Palm Beach as liquidator of the defunct Bank of Canal Point was confirmed Monday. The appointment was made by State Comptroller Ernest Amos several weeks ago and was confirmed by Judge C. E. Chillingworth in an order signed Monday.

At the same time Mr. Cochrane was confirmed as liquidator of the defunct Bank of Lake Worth. Both of the banks were controlled by E. G. Dahlberg of Chicago, president of the Southern Sugar Company, which is in the hands of a court under a receivership proceeding.

Mr. Cochrane is liquidator of all defunct state banks in Palm Beach county except the First American Bank & Trust Company.

Glimpsing the Moon
By putting a penny in the slot of an automatic machine on the promenade and piers of many English south coast seaside resorts, it is possible to gaze at the moonlight in the moon. The automatic telescope is the invention of a Londoner, and he is making astronomy one of the most popular hobbies on the coast.

Caused by Wind
The vibration of high-tension power lines is caused by the wind. These vibrations seem to be transmitted along the lines from span to span, causing them to continue across spots where a full in the wind exists. It is the same phenomenon as the humming of telephone wires.

Old-Fashioned Women
After reading some of today's advertisements, it seems strange that a good many old-fashioned women can make good apple pie without ever having had a course in engineering—Indianapolis News.

PROTESTS FLOODWAY

The Seaboard Air Line railroad has filed a protest with Everglades drainage board against construction of a proposed levee parallel with West Palm Beach canal that was intended to hold floodwaters back from the cultivated land around Canal Point and Pahokee.
